SCHOOL DINNERS

Please note that ALL children on school dinners are encouraged to eat everything that they have selected from the menu. Therefore, it is important that when making your child's menu choices, you know they like what they are selecting. Please also encourage your child to choose at least one vegetable option. If you would like your child to try something new, please indicate this as such on the menu and they will be given a small taster portion. Thank you for your co-operation.
