Core Values

Autumn 2 2023

Respect....

- For being a mediator and bringing together a friendship group after a falling out.

Nominated by: Charlotte Venton

Nurture...

- She always comes over with a cuddle if she sees anyone upset. She is a joy to have in our class.
- Nominated by: Little Lambs staff

Inclusive...

- For being caring and helpful towards a classmate when they find lessons tricky, helping them to create wonderful art and just being a great support all of the time.
- Nominated by: Mrs Bromley

Success....

• For putting 100% effort into our Nativity and remembering all the words in the songs. You sang your heart out – well done!

Nominated by: Mrs Watkins and Mrs Goldthorpe

Love....

- For always thinking about others before herself.

- Nominated by: Harriet

Nurture....

© Tampest

- For all my cakes.
- Thank you for helping and going above and beyond, it is much appreciated.
- Nominated by: Rafferty, Elijah & Mrs Young

Believe....

- For inspiring children right across school to be inclusive towards those with disabilities, to believe in themselves and to reach for their goals – not letting anything get in the way.

Nominated by: Mrs Bromley & Mrs Schofield

Inclusive...

- They saw a member of their class sat on their own at lunch so invited her to play football and praised her throughout the game!
- Nominated by: Miss Cole

Nurture....

- Each week when we are in Kids Club, he takes great care of me, playing games, reading to me and even sharing his popcorn! Thank you.
- Nominated by: Valentina & Miss Cole

Respect....

All teachers and adults in this school.

• Believing in every child, working towards the children's dreams for them. Respecting every child. Teachers letting every child join in even if they are not allowed. Also helping to make sure they can be inclusive. Letting children have success. Liking every person equally. Aspiring us to actually do it. Nurturing all children and seeing other people's dreams.
