- Nominated by: Sophie and Lottie

Respect....

---

- He's always so kind to me, says 'hello' everyday. He's been so helpful and always checks if I'm okay if I am upset and will ask if I need something. He's been such a great partner.
- Nominated by: Gracie

Nurture....

---

- He is kind, patient and nurturing to the younger members of nursery. He has made a big difference to school life for one of the new children.
- Nominated by: Little Lambs Staff

Respect....

---

- For always having beautiful manners towards grown-ups – saying 'Good morning, Miss Harrison' with a lovely smile on her face.
- Nominated by: Miss Harrison

Success....

---

- For being an outstanding planter of trees! She approached the job with a lovely calm, determined attitude, listening and following instructions and then REALLY getting stuck in. It made her a super tree planter! She did this whilst quietly helping others too and also having lots of fun!
- Nominated by: Mrs Nicoll & Mrs Medcalf

Respect....

---

- You are always so helpful to staff and friends, and you take great care of our classroom by tidying up and looking after everything.
- Nominated by: EYFS Team

Nurture....

---

- He has been a huge help to me during Reception, Year 1 & Year 2 football club, helping nurture his younger teammates; showing leadership and positive behaviour.

- Nominated by: Bryn Jenkins

Respect....

---

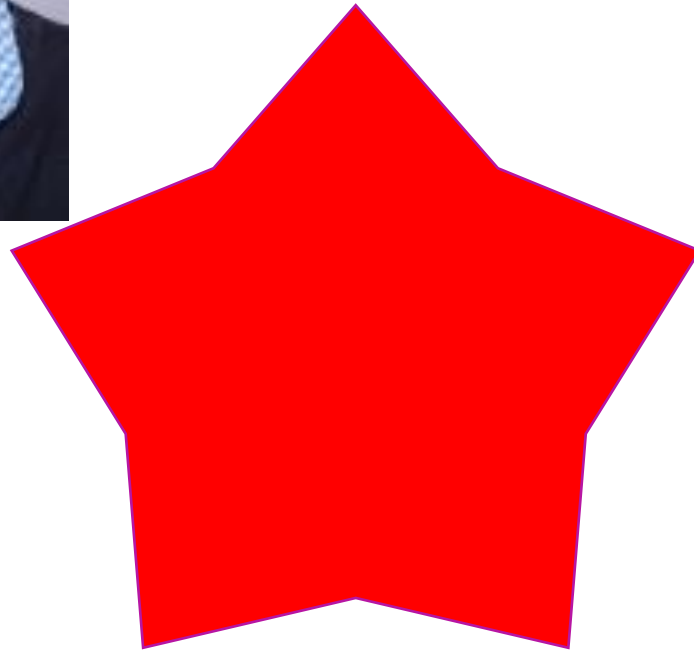

© Tempest

- Because she always tells me to persevere and laughs at my jokes. She is like my best friend but a teacher.
- Nominated by: Edie

Success....

---

- We are so proud of you for showing amazing perseverance and bravery! Even though you have a poorly hand, you've kept going with a big smile and resilience.
- Nominated by: EYFS Team

Respect....

---

- She is an amazing friend and always puts a smile on my face when I'm feeling down.
- Nominated by: Olivia
